Refund & Cancellation Policy

There is no charge for cancellations received by August 8 of the course year. Cancellations between August 8 and the first class meeting will be charged an administrative fee of $150: however, at any time prior to the first class, the sponsoring agency may send an admissible substitute student to the Academy at no additional charge. Neither refunds nor replacements will be allowed after the first class meeting.

Program Accessibility

We accommodate persons with disabilities. Please call 785-296-2353 or mark the space on the registration form, and a KU Public Management Center representative will contact you to discuss your needs. To ensure accommodation, please indicate your special needs at least two weeks before the start of the program.

The University of Kansas is committed to providing programs and activities to all persons, regardless of race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, sex, age, disability, and veteran status. In addition, university policies prohibit discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, marital status, and parental status.

Privacy Policy

KU Continuing Education does not share, sell, or rent their mailing lists. You have our assurance that any information you provide will be held in confidence by KU Continuing Education.

We occasionally use mailing lists that we have leased. If you receive unwanted communication from KUCE, it is because your name appears on a list we have acquired from another source. In this case, please accept our apologies.

KU Continuing Education typically releases directory information in the form of a participant roster unless written notification to withhold this information is received at least one week before the program.
